

Daniel K. Christensen

dchristensen7452@gmail.com

Research Interests:

New Testament Studies, Gospels and Acts, Synoptic Problem, Greco-Roman Biography and Historiography, Textual Criticism, Biblical Languages, Digital Humanities

Education

The University of Chicago | Chicago, IL | 2019

MA: Social Sciences, History Concentration

Thesis: "Gospel Data: The Utility of Empirical Analyses of the Synoptic Gospels seen through an Exegesis of the Healing of the Paralytic" dchristensen7452.github.io/GospelData/

Whitworth University | Spokane, WA | 2018

MA: Theology

Thesis: "Roman Citizenship as a Climactic Narrative Element: Paul's Roman Citizenship in Acts 16 and 22 Compared with Cicero's Against Verres"

Eastern Washington University | Cheney, WA | 2015

BA: History | Summa Cum Laude

Thesis: "Alien Apostle: Luke's Literary Purpose Behind Paul's Roman Citizenship"

Publications

"Roman Citizenship as a Climactic Narrative Element: Paul's Roman Citizenship in Acts 16 and 22 Compared with Cicero's Against Verres," Conversations with the Biblical World 38 (2018): 55–75

Presentations

"Roman Citizenship as a Climactic Narrative Element: Paul's Roman Citizenship in Acts 16 and 22 Compared with Cicero's Against Verres," Pacific Northwest Region SBL Annual Meeting, Parkland, WA (May 2018)

"College and Career Age Ministry," Inland Northwest Awana Ministry Conference, Spokane, WA, (October 2016)

"The Environmental Impact of Sugar Cultivation on Cyprus during the Crusades, 1100–1350," Guest Lecturer, Eastern Washington University, Cheney, WA, (May 2015)

"Alien Apostle: Luke's Literary Purpose Behind Paul's Roman Citizenship," Phi Alpha Theta Northwest Regional Student Conference, Chelan, WA (April 2015)

Awards and Honors

Merit-Based Scholarship of Half Tuition, The University of Chicago (2018–2019)

Summer Language Instituted Scholarship, The University of Chicago (2018, 2019)

Welch Family Foundation Grant for Graduate in Theology, Whitworth University (2015–2017)

Jeffers R. Chertok Dean's Honored Student Award for History, College of Social and Behavioral Sciences and Social Work, Eastern Washington University (2015)

Outstanding History Student Award, Eastern Washington University (2015)

Undergraduate History Department Scholarship, Eastern Washington University (2014)

Presidential Scholarship, Eastern Washington University (2012–2015)

Languages

Greek: Koine, Advanced; Attic, Intermediate | Biblical Hebrew, Advanced | Latin, Beginning | German, Beginning

Professional Memberships

American Academy of Religion

Society of Biblical Literature